

FLUENCY 1

Circle the coordinating conjunctions.

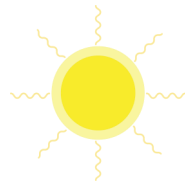

and look if friend
he or because but when went so that

Underline the subordinating conjunctions.

FLUENCY 2

Circle the correct conjunction in each sentence.

- 1. I want to go to Disneyland when/and I go on holiday to Paris.
- 2. There was a huge storm if/so we had to go and wait inside.
- 3. Anita loves summer that/but Ranjit prefers the winter months.
- 4. We could stay in a hotel because/or we could go camping instead.

FLUENCY 3

Tick (✓) the sentences which have used a conjunction correctly.

- 1. Millie visited a shop in Japan that she knew sold cleaning robots.
- 2. The teddy bear has big, brown eyes because it is wearing a sailor hat.
- 3. You can buy some sweets if you have enough money.
- 4. Jerry took a deep breath and jumped into the swimming pool.

Four empty square boxes for marking answers.

FLUENCY 4

Add conjunctions to complete the sentences.

- 1. We are throwing her a surprise party _____ it's her birthday.
- 2. Marlon loves visiting the seaside _____ the weather is nice.
- 3. Remember to take an umbrella _____ you're going out in the rain.

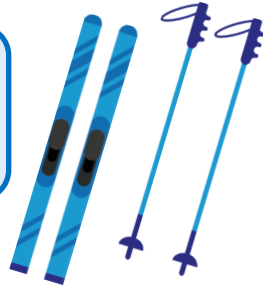

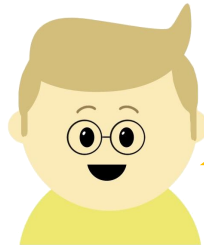

REASONING 1

Alfie and Caleb are trying to decide which conjunction should be added to the sentence.

The Johnson family flew to France on Christmas Eve _____ they could go skiing.

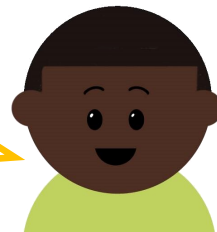

Alfie

The best conjunction to use is 'because'.

The best conjunction to use is 'so'.

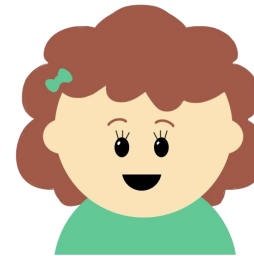

Caleb

Who do you agree with?
Explain your reasoning.

REASONING 2

Darcey says she has underlined the conjunctions in her sentence.

The children and teachers will be very upset if the school trip is cancelled.

Is she correct?
Convince me!

REASONING 3

Odd One Out!

1. Asha saw a barn owl when she went stargazing with her family.
2. It is important that you follow the class rules.
3. Shall we get a takeaway or go out to a restaurant?

