

Topic: Carnival Time!

Term: 6

Beathar

Background Information	Interesting facts	Key Vocabulary
There are 7 continents and 5 oceans.	Brazil is a country on the continent of South Ameri- ca.	Atlantic Ocean	The large body of water between the continents of Africa and Europe in the East, and North America and South America in the West.
 London is the capital of the United Kingdom, which is a country in the continent of Europe. 	• It is the largest country in South America.	carnival	A festival of celebration which happens before Lent.
• Plants need air, light and water to grow.	Its capital city is called Brasilia.	city	A place in which people live that is larger or
• Animals can be sorted into groups such as mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians.	People speak Portuguese in Brazil.	alimata	more important than a town.
	• The Atlantic Ocean is to the east of Brazil.	climate	The weather conditions for a certain place. This can be different depending on the season.
	 Lots of the land is covered by the Amazon Rainfor- est, which is full of vegetation. 	egg	A cell from a female animal which can grow into a new animal.
Diagrams / Timelines / Photos	• Many different animals live in the Amazon rainforest, including jaguars, toucans, tapirs and capybara.	equator	An imaginary circle around the Earth, dividing it into two equal parts: the Northern Hemisphere and the Southern Hemisphere. It runs east and west halfway between the North and South
The Brazilian flag	• Rio de Janeiro is another important city in Brazil.		poles.
<image/> <image/> <image/> <image/> <image/>	Sugarloaf Mountain overlooks Rio.	mountain	A landform that rises high above its surround- ings. Taller than a hill, it usually has steep
	Christ The Redeemer statue is famous—it stands on top of the Corcovado Mountain.	offspring	slopes and a rounded or sharp peak. An animal's child, young or baby.
	 Rio is also famous for its carnival celebrations which take place around Shrove Tuesday. 	Portuguese	Language spoken in Brazil, Portugal and some countries in Africa. It is similar to Spanish.
	• Northern Brazil is close to the equator.	rainforest	Tropical woodland with heavy rainfall and very tall evergreen trees. Rainforests are found
	• In the summer, the weather is hot and humid. Win- ters are warm and sunny.	statue	close to the equator. A likeness (of a person) sculptured or modelled from a material such as marble or clay.
	 As the weather is warm, lots of crops grow there, including: coffee, wheat, rice, corn, sugarcane, co- coa and citrus fruits such as lemons and limes. 	vegetation	A group of plants growing closely together in an area or habitat.
	 Samba is a famous music style from Brazil.
	 All animals have offspring which will then grow over time into adults.
	• These offspring will look similar to their parents.		Know how to / Activity
	Mammal babies are usually born alive.	Plant	some seeds and watch them grow.
	• Other animal groups, such as reptiles, amphibians, birds and fish, will lay eggs and the offspring hatch from these.	 Find Brazil and the cities Brasilia and Rio de Janeiro on a map. Find out how these places are different from Lincolnshire.
			ome fruits from Brazil, such as mango, papa- uava, passion fruit or pineapple.