Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day

I'm sure your child is as excited as we are about World Book Day next week. We invite them to come dressed as their favourite book character to get into the spirit of the day. If they don't have a costume they should come in school uniform but could bring their favourite book with them or clues to a favourite character. However, we would remind you this is not a dress down day and there should be no football kits worn unless there is a direct link to a book the child has got. Some great ideas for costumes, which are easy to make can be found at the websites below.

We will be doing a variety of activities to mark the day including a special assembly and author sessions. The children will be given their book day vouchers over the next few days, which entitles them to a free book from the 2025 World Book Day titles. These can be redeemed from local independent booksellers, Argosy, Asda, Blackwell's (selected stores only), Easons, Lidl, Sainsburys, Tesco, The Works, Trago Mills, Waterstones and WHSmith. Details of the various titles can be found at 2025s-1-books.

Reading is the golden ticket to strange and exotic lands; to mystery and adventure; and the opportunity to encounter strange and wondrous characters and creatures. We love to read and we are proud of the reading culture at our school so are looking forward to supporting World Book Day next Thursday (6th March). If you have any queries, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Whitehead
